

BUILDING GLOBAL SUPPORT

Recognizing the importance of the goal of the Global Connect Initiative to bring 1.5 billion additional people online by 2020, senior representatives of the following stakeholders met on April 14 to discuss how to achieve this goal and the future of the initiative:

Afghanistan
Argentina
Alliance for Affordable Internet
American Tower
Asian Development Bank
Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank
Australia
Bangladesh
Belgium
Brazil
BroadSoft
Canada
Chile
Cote d'Ivoire
Egypt
Ericsson
Estonia
European Bank for Reconstruction and Development
European Investment Bank
Facebook
Finland
Georgia
Ghana
GSMA
India
Information Technology Industry
Council
Institute of Electrical and Electronics
Engineers
Inter-American Development Bank
Inter-American Telecommunication Commission
International Telecommunication
Union
Japan
Jordan
Microsoft
Mozilla Foundation
NetHope
New Zealand
Nokia
One Web
Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development
Panama
Pakistan
PayPal
Philippines
Republic of Korea
Sri Lanka
Sweden
Senegal
Telenor
Thailand
Togo
Tunisia
United Kingdom
United States of America
Verizon
World Bank

GLOBAL CONNECT
INITIATIVE
1.5 BILLION MORE ONLINE BY 2020

In addition, the following stakeholders, although not in attendance at the April 14 High Level Event, have expressed their support for the Global Connect Initiative:

AccessNow
Aci-Participa
Africa Information and Communications Technology
Alliance
Article 19
Asociacion Colombiana de Usuarios
de Internet
Association for Progressive Communications
AT&T
Argentina
Bangladesh Friendship Education
Society
Bangladesh NGOs Network for Radio and Communication
British Telecom
Brocade
Centre Africain D'echange Culturel
Cisco
Corning Incorporated
Creative Investment Research
Digital Rights Foundation
Dell
Fundacion Karisma
The Gambia YMCA
Gigabits Libraries Network
Google
Hewlett-Packard
Human Rights Watch
IBM
IMPACT Institute For The Digital
Economy
Instituto Bem Estar
Instituto Panameño de Derecho y
Nuevas Tecnologías
Intel
International Federation Of Library
Associations And Institutions
Internet2
Internet Governance Forum of Pakistan
Japan Electronics and Information
Technology Industries Association
Kosovo
Linguistic Internet Society
Lithuania
Mauritius
McGill University
Microsoft
Movimento Mega
Nigeria
The New England Council
Open Media
Public Knowledge
Qualcom
Red En Defensa de los Derechos
Digitales
Romania
Salesforce
Silver Lake
Software Freedom Law Centre
Soukeina
Sudan
TEDIC
Ukraine
U.S. Chamber of Commerce
Web Foundation
World Economic Forum

GLOBAL CONNECT
INITIATIVE
1.5 BILLION MORE ONLINE BY 2020